LOCATION

"The subject neighborhood, generally defined as Beeville, Texas, is situated in the central portion of Bee County and is strategically located between Corpus Christi and San Antonio. Beeville is the county seat of Bee County. Adjacent counties include San Patricio County to the south; Goliad and Refugio County to the east; Karnes County to the north; and Live Oak County to the west. Beeville is approximately 50 miles north of Corpus Christi, 80 miles south of San Antonio, 90 miles northeast of Laredo and 180 miles southwest of Houston. This area is generally situated along the US 181 corridor and the IH-69 corridor.

The region is coming off of a strong economic period due to drilling and servicing sectors of the petroleum industry in the "Eagle Ford" shale play during the time period of 2011 to 2014. More recently, a decline in energy prices had spawned concerns about the petroleum industry and overall economic conditions. There were significant layoffs and drilling nearly ceased. The oil and gas market appears to have rebounded, and drilling activity and oil prices in the "Eagle Ford" shale appears to be as robust as ever. Additionally, the Coastal Bend continues to have several large Port Industry projects along the ship channel that should bolster the economy and prevent any appreciable decline in the overall market. While forecasting is an integral part of the appraisal process, the future economic conditions are difficult to predict. The appraisal process uses predominantly historical data which has shown a modest growth trend the last 24-36 months in all real estate sectors. It appears as though the regional economic outlook should continue to improve so long as oil prices continue their steady or upward trend and interest rates remain at their current levels or drop to levels slightly below where they are currently."*

Information About Brokerage Services

2-10-2025

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- · Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent. An owner's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent. A buyer/tenant's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - o that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
